

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

Any fans of Star Trek reading this will know about one wonderful feature of life on the “Starship Enterprise”—the “holodeck,” where crew members can invent luxurious vacation spots complete with fabulous palm trees, waterfalls, and exciting adventures. The point is that the crew is expected to take plenty of “time out” for rest and relaxation.

We hear about a similar comforting picture of rest and refreshment available to us right here on earth. When Jesus speaks of Himself as the Good Shepherd in the Gospel, we can imagine Him creating this scene from the Psalm today.

Picture this: “In soft, green pastures you tell me to lie down and relax...near this beautiful quiet water I can finally rest...I don’t fear anything...You’ve set a lavish table in front of me. I’m surrounded with nothing but good things for the rest of my life...I never want to leave!” Sounds great. Jesus, too, took time out to “a deserted place” to rest, but the problem in most of our over-stressed, over-booked, noisy lives is actually accepting this invitation for rest and refreshment.

A lot of us are afraid to leave the carnival of noise behind; we like to feel needed. But our constant activity makes it hard to rest silently with God. Watching football with the guys, or a “Girl’s Night Out” doesn’t really renew and refresh us as Jesus has in mind.

At certain points, we do need a retreat or Day of Reflection. But the real habit Jesus wants us to develop is to go inside ourselves DAILY, even for a few minutes, to a place where we can actually listen to God and our heartbeat. Maybe Sundays can become a day to go to this “planet of peace” as often as you possibly can. If you do, Jesus promises that He will lead you and be with you beside the still waters.

Sacred Heart School is a PreK-8 elementary school where students learn and grow spiritually, morally, academically, socially, and physically. In an attempt to truly meet each child's needs, we offer full-day and half-day kindergarten programs, as well as many enrichment and intervention opportunities. If you are interested in learning more about Sacred Heart School, we encourage you to check out our website at www.shswadsworth.org.
